MEDIA ADVISORY

Metro Board to Vote on Motion to require the Study of Building a Station at LAX for the Future Crenshaw/LAX Transit Line

What: The Metro Board will vote on Supervisors Mark Ridley-Thomas and Don Knabe's motion to require Metro to study building a station for the future Crenshaw/LAX transit line located directly in the airport terminal area

When: 9:30 a.m., Thursday, January 23

Who: Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority Board

Where: Metro Board Conference Room
One Gateway Plaza
3rd Floor
Los Angeles

Background:

Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority Board member and 2nd Vice Chair Mark Ridley-Thomas and Los Angeles County Supervisor Don Knabe have introduced a motion to require Metro to study building a station for the future Crenshaw/LAX transit line located directly in the airport terminal area. The current Metro proposals would have the line stop some distance from the terminals to be connected by a shuttle.
